

I am strongly opposed to Sinclair Broadcasting forcing their stations to air a 90 minute anti-Kerry "documentary" on public airwaves without balancing it with either a pro-Kerry piece or an anti-Bush piece. What happened to fair and balanced use of the PUBLIC airwaves. This situation is bad for democracy and is a strong argument against media consolidation. Freedom, democracy, liberty, hmmm, seems this is more like STATE media, more like Russia.